Day 1: Marksville, LA

Board our spacious, video-equipped motorcoach for a relaxing ride to Marksville, LA, and the beautiful Paragon Casino Resort. Enjoy the evening and next morning at Paragon on your own with exciting gaming action, a relaxing visit to the Spa La Vie, a movie at the Paragon Cinema, or relax with the serene backdrop of the Paragon Atrium while sipping your favorite beverage.

Day 2: New Orleans, LA

Enjoy free time this morning before the short drive to New Orleans. Today, enjoy the historic French Quarter, the oldest and most famous New Orleans neighborhood. "The Quarter" contains numerous historic buildings, as well as the famous "Bourbon Street." This evening enjoy the gaming action at Harrah's casino.

Day 3: New Orleans, LA (B)

Take the trolley to the Audubon Aquarium. At the aquarium penguins, stingrays, sharks and other deep-sea creatures await. In the afternoon, board the coach for the Jean Lafitte Swamp Tour. On the swamp tour, explore Louisiana's back country. Trained navigators escort us into the murky waters of Louisiana swamps where we will come face to face with the beauty and beasts of nature.

Day 4: Home (B)

This morning visit the World War II Museum or take the trolley to the Garden District. The WWII Museum was founded by noted author and historian, Stephen E. Ambrose. The Garden District of New Orleans was settled in the 1850's. It contains elegant mansions exemplifying many architectural styles. Depart the hotel at 11 am. Cross the 18.2 mile bridge known as the "Atchafalaya Swamp Freeway". This 18 mile long bridge was also known as the "bridge that could not be built" due to the dense marsh and swamplands.

St. Louis Cathedral

French Market Place

(B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner).
